

I support the proposal of the ARRL to expand the Amateur service to allow for a active Novice, General, and Extra class. I feel that this will allow a simple way to restructure and keep the class identifiers the same as they appear in the FCC database.

The added cost of creating new identifiers and reprogramming the database would be a un-needed expense.